SECOND SUIT FOR DIVORCE

Engineer Platt, Names Tom Waller's Son as Co-Respondent.

Damaging Testimony Against the Wife in Court To-Day.

The second suit for absolute divorce brought by William H. Platt, an engineer, of the United States Navy, against his wife, Minnie La Tourette Platt, was on before Judge Osborn and a jury in the City Court, Brooklyn, this morning.
The couple were married in 1885.

Gov. Waller, of Connecticut, was named as co-respondent. Mrs. Platt contested the co-respondent. Mrs. Platt contested the suit and the jury decided in her favor. To-day Mas. Platt made no defense.

Her husband this time names young Waller, charles Mason and Thomas H. Marr as co-respondents. The first witness was a messenger boy named Barney Sweeney. He testified that in January, 1892, he often talked with Waller over the telephone mating appointments for Mrs. Platt.

James Scott, a hatter, of lower Fulton street, said that on a certain day in 1891 he went to a room in the Long Branch Hotel which had just been vacanted by Mrs. Plats and Waller.

Tower Switchman Duryee, of the Kings County Elevated Railroad, said that his tower was just opposite room 25 of the Long Branch Hotel and Waller in the room together.

Abraham Stein, or 304 has Seventy-fourth street, New York, swore that at one time he worked for Thomas H. Marr at 2549 Atlantio avenue, Brooklyn, and once saw Marr In a room with Mrs. Platt at that address. The
